The Wenhaston Warbler

November 2026

Remembrance services

Sunday 8th November

This year our commemoration will begin with a ceremony in the Village Hall car park at 10.50am, followed by a service in St Peter's Church.

Wednesday 11th November

The children from Wenhaston Primary School will as usual have a short service to mark Armistice Day, starting at the church, then moving to the War Memorial for the two-minute silence at 11 o'clock.

We hope that as many people as possible will support these two services: to mark those who gave their lives for their country; to remember those currently serving in our armed forces; and to pray for peace, in a world which continues to suffer from the consequences of conflict.

Ukraine Update

IF YOU WATCH THE NEWS, you will be aware that Ukraine continues to be bombed by Russia.

People are being killed or made homeless every day. Food warehouses are being targeted, along with major infrastructure.

Wenhaston residents have already helped to send more than 100 boxes of aid to Ukraine since the war began and we began donating to Hope and Aid Direct (HAAD).

Can you help again?

It is noticeable that the temperature has dropped here in the UK in the last week or so. The temperature will drop a whole lot lower in Ukraine and winter will be long and hard for them. They have lots of needs:

- The first and most important is food. Tinned meat, vegetables and fruit. Dried food, eg peas, beans, lentils, instant soup, stock cubes to flavour pasta and rice. Tea, coffee and sugar. Cooking oil.

  Plus hygiene and sanitary products. Household cleaning products.

I know all these things need buying, and that the cost of living is high, but if just 1 or 2 items could be added to your shopping altogether it would help.

- The second is good quality warm clothing, shoes, blankets, duvets and covers, pillows and pillow cases and towels.

Toys We are coming up to Christmas and if you and your children have pre-loved toys they would like to send to a new home, HAAD would love to take them to Ukraine's war-torn children. And the list could go on – a current list of needs can be found on HAAD's web site.

PLEASE, all clothes, bedding etc must be fit for purpose. No jumble. And it must be clean. It costs around £4000 to send a truck of aid to Ukraine so it needs to be worth sending.

I know I ask a lot but, if you can help, please drop off items to 3 Blyth Close and, if you need to find out if what you have is suitable, do ring on 01502 478600. Thank you. Jo Small

Blyth Woods
We need your trees!

Sweet chestnut

Do you find saplings growing in your garden in unwanted places……..for example Oaks, Field Maples, Sweet Chestnuts, Hawthorns, Hazel, Hornbeam and Birch….Blyth Woods would love to plant them at St Peter's Pightle.

Please bring your trees on Thursday December 10th at 10am to St Peter's Pightle, at the end of Church Lane. You can drop them off, or stay to help with some planting. We are happy to collect too, just email blythwoods1@gmail.com.

Oak

The survival rate of our trees has been relatively good, but we are still looking to replace over 120 trees – and what better way to do it, than with trees from our community.

Locally grown native saplings are also better because they are already adapted to our weather and soil type, so this increases their survival.

Transplanting tips:

- Oak saplings for example have very long roots so remember to dig deep down.
- Bare roots are fine but please don't dig up until the day and wrap in newspaper to keep moist.
- If planting in pots only do so a couple of days prior and again keep moist.
- Native trees only.

Horse chestnut

We are looking for more volunteers to help maintain this and the other community spaces we manage at Grove Piece, Malsters Little Field, and Vicarage Grove.

Working parties will be held on the second Thursday of the month from 10 – 12noon at St Peters Pightle at the end of Church Lane. 12th November, 10th December7

Please email blythwoods1@gmail.com to receive our newsletter and details of all working parties and events.

Wenhaston Walkers

OUR FIRST WALK IN NOVEMBER WILL be on Tuesday 3rd, setting off at 10am from Wenhaston Village Hall.

On FRIDAY, 20th November (please note change of day), Lesley and Alastair will lead the walk from The Three Horseshoes, North Cove NR34 7PH (on the A146 near Barnby), starting out at 10am; lunch details to be notified.

If you wish to add your name to the circulation list, please email ipbigwood@btinternet.com

Recycling Printer Cartridges

The box for recycling printer cartridges is no longer available in the Village Hall. This was an initiative instigated by Wenhaston WI, which I have been able to organise for the past 16 years, with profits going to charity.

However, the company providing the service no longer does it for free.

In 2026 we have many other places where we can recycle our used cartridges: supermarkets, Hetty's in Halesworth, or back to the printer manufacturer. So please carry on recycling your printer cartridges, but a different way!

News from St Peter's

We were delighted that the Harvest Festival was such a happy occasion. It was held at 4pm instead of the usual morning service and was followed by a hearty tea. The collection of £200 was sent to the Royal Agricultural Benevolent Institute. We were so pleased that the Revd Alison was able to take the service as her mother had recently died, and we send our sincere condolences to Alison and her family at this difficult time.

The schoolchildren came for their harvest service on the following Monday, bringing lots of harvest gifts. These, together with the produce from the Harvest Service, were distributed between the Larder and the Food Bank.

Many thanks to James Ellis, who visited 22 churches and raised £471 which will be divided between Suffolk Historic Churches Trust and St Peter's, Wenhaston. James was nursing an injured achilles tendon at the time, so many thanks to Suzanne for transporting him when needed.

Remembrance Sunday

In November the Remembrance Service will be on Sunday 8th at the Village Hall car park at 10.50am, followed by a service in church. We will miss John Levy this year who always led the British Legion part of the service.

An early reminder that we will have a Tombola at the Christmas Bazaar in December and should be grateful for any small gifts for the stall. Thank you.

Thank you

I would just like to thank everyone who has given me and our family support over the last few months as my Mum's health deteriorated, and at the time of her death.

Your cards and conversations have really helped during a tough time, and we really appreciate your care.

Interested in opening your garden for

Wenhaston Wilder Gardens Trail

on Saturday 22nd May 2027

between 10.30am and 4.30pm?

We welcome expressions of interest from those who garden for the benefit of wildlife and biodiversity, whether this is part, or the whole, of your garden, large or small.

We aim to include a range of gardens – new ones, alongside others that opened in previous years.
Around 10 in total.

If you're interested, please email wilderwenhaston@gmail.com giving your details, and using the header WWGT 2027.
Closing date 31st January 2027

We will then make contact to answer any questions you have. We'll arrange to meet you, and look round your garden together with you, before making any decisions on the best combination of village gardens to create an interesting and accessible trail.

Thank you for your interest, we hope to see you on the 2027 Wilder Garden Trail.

Wilder Wenhaston
pathway to a greener future

Notes from the School

WE HAVE HAD A BUSY FEW WEEKS at Wenhaston Primary, with everyone quickly settling back into the swing of things after the summer break.

At the end of September Key Stage 2 held their Harvest Festival at the church. The service was filled with joyful singing, thoughtful readings, and poetry, along with an uplifting harvest message from the Revd Alison. Thanks to the wonderful generosity of our families, a good collection of food donations was delivered to the local Foodbank.

Later that same week, Oak Class set off on a residential trip to Bawdsey Manor. For several of our children, this was their very first time away from home without their parents. It proved to be an exciting experience for everyone, packed with adventurous activities including climbing, the zip wire, archery, and much more. Blessed with lovely weather and great food, the trip was not only a lot of fun, but also a confidence and character-building experience for the whole class.

In October the school supported Anaphylaxis Awareness week. Everyone came to school wearing something bright. The children learned about anaphylaxis and how to use an epi pen. The theme this year was a sense of belonging; parents helped to take part by making allergy friendly bakes for a bake sale after school. We raised £46 for Allergy UK. Jo Lockhart

Flower Club

The October meeting was our annual Charity Night, when we raised money for The Halesworth Branch of Cancer Research, which was a great success.

The demonstrator, Jenny Baker, took as her theme 'Colour my World' and we were treated to some very beautiful arrangements: a blue and gold one to represent Guide Dogs, as Jenny is very involved with this organisation; a vibrant red arrangement, as she remembered her time in India; plus at least four more colourful arrangements.

As part of the evening there was a craft/gift stall with handmade items: Myrtle selling her lovely handmade cards; Cancer Research selling their Christmas merchandise; and there was also a raffle – which included all the arrangements that Jenny had made.

Thank you to anyone who contributed in any way to make this an outstanding evening: to everyone who donated food, made something for the craft stall or provided a raffle prize; to Sue for making up all the hampers for the raffle; and to the ladies in the kitchen, who did a sterling job providing the plates of food and teas and coffees that were served after the demonstration.

Congratulations to everyone who won a prize!

Next meeting

Our next meeting on Tuesday November 3rd in the Village Hall, at the usual time of 7.30pm. This will be our Christmas workshop with Roger. £5 on the night including light refreshments.

For more information please contact: Jackie Chenery 01502 478401

November at Halesworth Library

As the nights draw in why not pop into the library and pick up your next read? If you're unable to visit the library, one of our friendly volunteers can come to you. Please contact us on 01986 506062 for more details.

The Care Club

Join us on Monday 2nd and Monday 9th November, 2-3.30pm for The Care Club, hosted by Sarah Lewis – a free, gentle gathering after opening hours for anyone who needs an hour to stop. Each session centres one of Suffolk's landscapes. Through sound, visualisation and relaxation, we slow down together.

Well-being Session

On Monday 16th November we are joined by Norfolk and Suffolk Foundation Trust from 2-3pm for a '5 ways to well-being session'. We discuss 5 things everyone can do in their day-to-day lives to boost their well-being. A fun and informative session for adults of all ages.

Book Talk

The Friends of Halesworth Library will be hosting a book group talk on Thursday 15th November, 2.30pm with AJ Deane! AJ is an actor, Pushcart-nominated poet, singer, storyteller, and self-confessed geek. He co-founded QuirkHouse Theatre with writer and Friends of Halesworth Library patron Jackie Carreira, and especially enjoys work which explores myths, legends, folklore, Fantasy, Sci-Fi, and anything which promotes well-being through creativity. Join him for this talk which will touch on all of the above – and why, if poetry does not interest you, you should write it! Booking is advised to secure your space. Free event, but donations to The Friends of Halesworth Library are always welcome. We hope to see you there!

Our usual activities, and drop-ins, continue – please ask a member of staff for more details.

Garden BirdWatch

AT OUR FIRST AUTUMN MEETING THIS YEAR, Susan Jones, of the British Trust for Ornithology (BTO), told us just how the Garden BirdWatch works: it is a survey of birds and other fauna in British gardens that takes place week by week throughout the year. Gardens are a wonderful resource for wildlife, but by nature they are private, and so the BTO enables volunteers to join an on-line survey that records their garden visitors, mainly birds, but also mammals, amphibians and other wildlife. This is then submitted weekly.

As volunteer numbers continue to increase, knowledge and understanding of the state of birdlife has been helped significantly. The rapid decline in greenfinches through disease was recorded and investigated, and the latest advice on bird feeding, and the type of feeders, is one result. The decline has been arrested, and the future for these birds looks brighter. Other diseases, which affect great tits and blackbirds, are being monitored.

Non-native species are also noted. The first ring-necked parakeets have been seen in Suffolk gardens, and the tree bumblebee recorded. The BTO has not found these species to be detrimental to our native breeds, but monitoring will continue. Trends in other insects such as pollinators are noticed: this has been a butterfly 'Painted Lady' year.

This is Citizen Science at an accessible, inclusive and flexible level; the BTO website has full information on how you can become involved.

The Marine Life of Scotland's West Coast

THE LATEST MEETING WELCOMED Rob Spray, a volunteer with Seasearch, to talk about the range of wildlife to be found in some of Scotland's western sea lochs.

Rob and his diving companions explore this area in winter, and although they must be fully equipped with drysuits and warm clothing, the water temperatures in fact are not as cold as they are here. They moved from Loch Long around to Loch Creran, recording the marine flora and fauna found there. The lochs are clear and generally calm, but also deep and dark, and lamps are used when necessary, lighting up the brilliant colours of the creatures found. The rare firework anemone has a spectacular display of long white tentacles up to 30cm long. Beautiful sessile sea squirts come in a wide range of colours. There are small spotted catsharks, lion's mane jellyfish, and starfish. Octopus and cuttle fish are present. Loch Creran is known for its serpulid worms, a beautiful marine tubeworm with pink and orange feathery tentacles, that grow to create reefs that home many other animals.

Seaweeds vary in each loch – from huge, tough beds of bladderwrack to fields of waving kelp. The quiet Loch Sween has maerl beds, red seaweeds that grow into hard, twig-like lumps that grow and intertwine, forming spiky beds that are ideal nurseries for a range of species. They are very slow to grow, and can take hundreds, or even thousands, of years to form.

This is a beautiful area, home to many different and sometimes rare creatures, but Rob drew our attention to the two main factors that can damage this environment; fishing with dredges, and the large amount of rubbish found everywhere in the lochs.

The photography was spellbinding, and we all enjoyed the rich diversity on display for us.

Our next meeting is at 7.30pm on Thursday, November 12th – see below. Entry is £5, to include refreshments, under 25s free. All are welcome.
